

QUANTIZABLE MODELS OF GRAVITY

Jerzy Lewandowski

The formalism of Dirac's canonical quantization developed for the needs of Einstein's General Relativity and combined with the framework of Loop Quantum Gravity is used to construct quantum models of gravitational field coupled to matter fields. For several examples, the quantization algorithm can be completed and a well defined theory can be formulated. The quantizable examples will be presented and discussed.